the 1990s, the number of people who have been employed in the public sector has increased in all countries. The increase in public sector employment has been particularly rapid in the United Kingdom, where the public sector has grown from 10.5% of the total labour force in 1970 to 17.5% in 1995 (see Figure 1).

There are a number of reasons for the increase in public sector employment. One reason is the growth of the welfare state. In many countries, the welfare state has expanded significantly since the 1970s, leading to an increase in the number of people employed in the public sector. Another reason is the growth of the public sector in the services sector. In many countries, the public sector has grown rapidly in the services sector, leading to an increase in the number of people employed in the public sector.
